Wines of the Month

White

Domaine La Colombette, Languedoc, France ½ bottle

This is an excellent example of how good Languedoc Sauvignon can be and is possible due to the fastidious nature of the Pugibet clan (the vineyard is so well ordered and maintained that I felt obliged to wipe my feet nose and has an elegance on the palate that is so often lacking in lesser examples of this aggressively pungent variety.

½ Bottle £15.00

Red

Collezione 50 Vino Rosso, Cantina San Marzano, NV, Italy. Owners favourite!

Ruby red colour with purple reflections, intense and complex bouquet with fruity notes of prune, red jam, the spicy scent of vanilla and liquorice. Intense on the palate, full bodied and soft with a long finish.

Bottle 48.00

Barbera D'asti 2019, Italy

Barbera d'Asti is a unique wine because the Barbera grape gives it both an intense, near-black appearance and a rich and light-bodied taste. This taste is highlighted by notes of strawberry, raspberry, and sour cherries, which make it a surprising and delightful wine.
